

8 Economical Ways to Earn NCP CE Credits

1

NCP Guide Program

Test registrants get guidance from you for free and you earn Credits.

2

ECCHOEd Recordings

Listen to a variety of recorded sessions (some free/some for a fee) and earn up to 1.8 credits per session.

3

NCP Exam Prep Training

Some trainers allow free piggybacks – ask the trainer if one person pays, may another NCP piggyback for NCP CE credits.

4

Participate in ECCHO Committees and/or Working Groups

Earn credits for your time by participating in one or more of these groups. Contact ecchoinfo@eccho.org for information on how to be involved.

5

Leverage Internal Training

Internal training requirements could overlap with NCP (e.g. check fraud & check related FFIEC guidance).

6

Internal Experts

Invite someone on your legal team or product area to discuss check topics. Educational sessions by vendors (not sales pitches) may be eligible.

7

Hold a Team “Lunch & Learn”

Earn double credits if you lead a session (minimum of 3 or more people attending). If you attend ECCHO Ops, review details with others.

8

Community Service

Teach others about how to use checks properly, endorsements, fraud avoidance, common risks and risk mitigation options.
